A Safe Place:

October is Crime Prevention Month

October is national Crime Prevention Month and an opportunity to become educated on how to avoid becoming a victim of a crime.

The Bozeman Police Department has handled 29,550 calls for service since January 1 (average = 108 / day). These calls have included 173 burglaries, 1289 thefts, and 182 motor vehicle thefts. The BPD has also responded to 1708 requests for a patrol check.

Simple actions and habits can prevent many of these crimes from occurring. Crime happens when desire meets opportunity and citizens can protect themselves by reducing these opportunities.

Locking your unattended home and vehicles is the easiest way to prevent a crime. The police also encourage exterior lighting to prevent concealed activities and remind citizens not to forget to shut their garage doors.

Perhaps the most rewarding way to prevent crime is by knowing your neighbors. Research shows areas with a sense of "neighborliness" have lower crime rates than other areas. Working with our neighbors and Police Department will keep our community a safe place to live!

Safe Neighborhood Tips

- Lighting (streets, sensor lights)
- Lock your house and cars
- Notify neighbors before leaving town
- Stay informed about neighborhood issues

Solid Waste Update:

Hauling and Use Changes

The Solid Waste Collection trucks started hauling their loads to the Logan Landfill on October 3rd. Beginning October 16th, the landfill will be open from 8am to noon, Tuesday through Saturday, and only city residents will be allowed to use the city landfill for household waste disposal. All city and county residents can continue to use the landfill for compost, whitegoods and recycling.

Code Corner: RV Storage

It's the time of year when RVs and campers are cleaned out and prepared for the winter season of rest. Recreational vehicles can cause rifts between neighbors if consideration is not paid to blocked views and inconvenient access to personal residences. RVS and campers cannot be parked or stored in the driveway (BMC 18.50.030) and will be ticketed if they're parked on the street for longer than 5 days.

Avoid tickets and keep your neighborly relationships intact by clearing a space inside the garage, renting a storage unit for the vehicle or parking the vehicle in the backyard. Those who store their RV or camper in the backyard should be aware that encroachment into the alleyway will be inconvenient for neighbors, a challenge for City garbage, fire and street services and may result in a fine.

Leaf Clean-Up:

The Street Department helps Citizens Prepare for Winter

Did you know each year the City hauls over 400 tons of leaves to the compost pile? The Street Department will begin their annual Leaf Clean Up beginning Nov. 2nd. Residents should watch for the "No Parking" signs in their neighborhoods and move cars to locations which will not interrupt service. Leaves should be raked into the gutter and should NOT be placed in bags. Please put leaves out the day before your pickup day. Areas around Longfellow, Hawthorne, Whittier and Irving will be done on Nov. 14th to avoid parking disruptions.

Photo Gallery: Climbing Boulder Dedication

The boulder is located at Langohr Park, between Mathew Bird Creek and the Gallagator Trail – south of Garfield, north of Mason, East of Wilson and west of Black. The easiest way to access the rock is to park at the dead end on Tracy, where Tracy extends west from Black, then walk down the trail about 30 yards and cross the bridge over Mathew Bird Creek. Photos by Ted Lange of GVL.T.

National Citizen Survey:

The Results of the National Citizen Survey are Online!

The National Research Center, Inc. has completed and compiled Bozeman's results in the National Citizen Survey. Completion of the survey marks the accomplishment of a City Commission goal for 2005 and provides the Commissioners, staff and general public with information to help set priorities and goals for the budget as well as identifies opportunities and services to improve, sustain and evaluate.

The results of the survey have been posted on the City's website, www.bozeman.net and will be presented to the City Commission on Monday, October 24th by a representative of the National Research Center. The presentation will occur at the Gallatin County Courthouse at 7pm during a regularly-scheduled City Commission meeting. The public is encouraged to attend!

Boulder Dedication:

A New Kind of Fun

Bozeman's first outdoor climbing rock was officially opened to the public at a dedication ceremony at Langohr Park. Designed for both kids and adults, the dramatic, 11-foot-high sculpted boulder was made possible by a generous $10,000 donation from the Mallo family, a $5,000 grant from the Montana Nutrition and Physical Activity Program, and a $6,000 City of Bozeman Parkland Improvement Grant secured by the Gallatin Valley Land Trust. The cost of the climbing rock was $18,000. The rock was designed and built by Bozeman resident Tony Yaniro, an internationally known climber and climbing wall designer. This project caps a three-year success story involving approximately $60,000 in park and trail improvement projects at Langohr Park.

For over a year, Gallatin Valley Land Trust and members of the Recreation and Parks Advisory Board had been discussing the vision of building a climbing rock in the only large park along Bozeman's most popular trail. However funding was uncertain until Art Mallo contacted GVLTL about donating money for park or trail improvements in memory of his son Chad who died of cancer several years ago. Chad was a Montana State University graduate and outdoorsman who loved to climb, so the Mallo family was excited about helping to make the climbing rock a reality.

Calling All Dog Lovers:

Need a Bestfriend?

The City's Animal Control Officer, Connie Lien, is asking the public to consider opening their homes to a couple 18 month old labrador-border collies who need temporary homes pending an animal cruelty case.

A generous citizen has offered to provide a kennel free-of-charge for the duration of the case to any citizen willing to foster one or both of these lovable dogs. The length of the commitment is likely to be 1-2 months with the possibility of adoption depending on the outcome of the case.

The dogs have been nursed back to health and love to receive attention! They just need a little direction and a chance to be someone's loyal pet. Permanent adoption may be a possibility depending on the outcome of the case.

If you can provide a temporary home for up to two months to one or both of these lovable dogs—please call the Bozeman Police Office Animal Control Office at 582-2000. By the way, October is National Adopt-a-Pet Month.
